Sir:

RESPONSE

In response to the Communication dated 10/20/2004 further consideration of this application is requested in line with the following remarks.

The Communication dated 10/20/2004 alleges that the response filed July 13, 2004 was not fully responsive because:

“Applicant has failed to distinguish the new claims over the prior art of record”.

However, the new claims are only dependent claims 32-35 and applicant has already explained why those claims add additional features to distinguish over the prior art in the second full paragraph at page 6 of the submission dated July 13, 2004. In addition, in the final paragraph on page 6 of that July 13, 2004 submission, applicant has also explained that dependent claims 32-35 are deemed allowable, at least in part, because they depend from independent claim 6 that has already been demonstrated as patentable with respect to the prior art.
